Peach County High School
Fort Valley, GA

2017 - 18 School Profile

Peach County High School, formerly Fort Valley High, was built in 1927 when the Fort Valley Public School outgrew the building on Everett Square (see graphic below). Additions in 1948, 1954, 1961 and 1966 modernized the school into an institution with increased opportunities at the secondary level. Peach County High School, as it exists, was built in 1974.
