TEST ADMINISTRATION
How do you ensure that examiners and proctors are not in the classroom with their own children or grandparents?	How do you assure that students get their appropriate accommodations?	How do you ensure that all instructional materials are removed from the wall prior to testing?	What is your plan for examiners that may need assistance during testing?	How do you plan to make sure that student answer documents and Check-out forms have the correct form number?
Standardized test examiners and proctors are assigned to classrooms in advance. This gives enough time for Mrs. Allen and Mrs. New to verify there are no relatives proctoring other relatives. Proctors have to fill out an information sheet listing all relatives at school.	Mr. Evatt attends all IEP meetings and SPED case managers update accommodations located on GOOGLE DRIVE, ESOL teacher (Mrs. Mathison will provide a copy of testing accommodations for ESOL students-TPC).  Mrs. Allen will provide 504 accommodations.  IEP's, ELL TCP'S and 504 accommodation pages are used to verify student accommodations.	Administrators (Mrs. Slocumb and Mr. Evatt) check all rooms prior to testing.	Proctors are used to assist examiners. Hall monitors are utilized on each hall also. If there is an emergency, examiners will signal hall monitors to address the need and hall monitor will report to Administrator.  A certified person will be in the room at all times.	Students, teachers, and Mr. Evatt(Testing Coordinator) all verify to make sure information is correct against the state issued sheets.

How do you ensure that examiners and proctors walk around the testing area routinely?	What things have the examiners and proctors been trained to look for while monitoring testing?	Who is in charge of reporting and investigating testing irregularities?	How examiners are trained on the proper procedures for “read aloud” accommodations?	How are accommodations for students verified?
Hall monitors, Mrs. Slocumb (Principal), Mr. Evatt (Assistant Principal/Testing Coordinator) and Mrs. Allen (Assistant Testing Coordinator) will be continuously monitoring during the test.	Proctor students sleeping, students not actively engaged, and making sure students mark answers in the correct section.	Mr. Evatt (Testing Coordinator) will be notified by anyone who notices any irregularities. Mr. Evatt will then notify Mrs. Slocumb and District Testing Coordinator, Mrs. Marshall. Each person involved MUST write a written report of the incident. District Coordinator will notify State Department.	ALL READ ALOUD Accommodations will be administered by ONLINE READER unless student is unable to test on computer. Each teacher will receive student testing accommodations. Teachers will receive training and Testing Examiners Manual to read over specific directions in advance.	Mr. Evatt attends all IEP meetings and SPED case managers update accommodations located on GOOGLE DRIVE, ESOL teacher (Mrs. Mathison will provide a copy of testing accommodations for ESOL students-TPC). Mrs. Allen will provide 504 accommodations. IEP’s, ELL TCP’S and 504 accommodation pages are used to verify student accommodations.

DURING TESTING
How do you verify that testing protocols are being followed in the testing site?	How do you handle late arrivals on testing days?	How do you handle emergencies during testing?	What are the school guidelines on staff members being in the building after hours while the tests are in the building?	How will you verify that testing materials counts match at the end of the testing session?
